dededededededededede, Colfax (Wash.) Gazette,-The Gacette acknowledges the receipt of the December 20. 'Ine Advertiser before us consists of 20 pages, containing a great deal of interest concerning the new territory, which was under a monarchical government not many years ago, but is now one of the possessions of Uncle Sam. The Hawaii promotion committee has been formed, and an effort is being made to induce immigration to the "loveliest fleet of islands that lie anchored in any ocean," as Mark Twain expresses it. This number of the Advertiser contains Mark Twain's latest tribute to Hawaii and much other matter of interest concerning the islands. The dispatches told us the other day that the government was getting ready to spend a million of dollars in building fortifications at Honolulu and Pearl Harbor, as well as an immense drydock at the latter place, all of which will mean much for the advancement of the material prosperity of the islanders. The islands are capable of supporting a large population.

Riverside (Cal.) Press.-The Press received last week copies of the Everett Daily Herald, the Labor Journal, and the Everett Morning Tribune, all of ...llegan. We have enjoyed looking them over, being interested in the great northwest. They indicate enterprise and thrift in the flourishing city of Everett. In a letter renewing his subscription to the Press Mr. Walker said that he and his wife were well and enjoying a good patronage. They conduct the hotel Tower, besides dealing in real estate. Another welcome newspaper product came from San Diego, Calif., sent by some friend there no doubt. It was a copy of the San Diego Union-a nonday boom edition-and contained 68 pages. One thing was particularly noticeablethat the Union lost no opportunity to sing the praises of the city and enlarge upon the many excellent opportunities awaiting development there. The first of the week another rare newspaper remembrance was received a copy of the Sunday Advertiser, published at Honolulu, Hawaii. 1t was sent by the promotion committee of that city, and the marked article was a letter from Mark Twain acknowledging receipt of a handsome mantel sent to him by the committee for his new home at Norwich, Conn. We appreciate all these favors. It shows how closely allied are the various parts and peoples of this great nation, though they may be separated by thousands of miles of land and water.
